

Saint Bridget's Day

St Bridget is the saint which the school, church and village are named after. This year we will be celebrating St Bridget's Day on Friday 30th January. Year 4 will be leading us in a service in St Bridget's Church at 9:30am and the children will be learning about the life of St Bridget in their class. Children are welcome to wear green to school for the day.

On Tuesday girls from Y5 and Y6 travelled to Ocean Park in Cardiff to play in a big football festival. We played six games and we won our last game 5-0 which was the highlight of the day. Our goal scorers were Molly, Alice, Sophia, Amalie and Rosa. Thank you to Mr Nurton for coaching us and Mr Clarke and Mr Potts for transporting us. By Molly and Sophia Y5
