

Llongyfarchiadau to our bardic poem winner ...

There once lived a dragon Fearless, and red,
He had sharp spikes, on the brim of his head,
During the night-time, he safeguarded Wales,
Exploring and looking after, all the new trails.

He walked up mountains, and flew over seas,
He appreciated the nice feeling, of the summer breeze,
The mountains are mighty, as strong as steel,
At sunset he enjoyed his luscious meal.

One quiet night, the English came to invade,
But the winning Welsh dragon, no, he wasn't afraid,
He took up the challenge, strong, and proud,
Down below, stood the cheering crowd.

It was a tough battle, when he thought he had won,
Oh no, the English came back, they still weren't done,
It was a ferocious fight, he let out his biggest roar,
But the English struck again, His leg became sore.

This battle now made him filled with fear,
He thought of a plan, he had the best idea,
He slapped them all, with his tail,
He knew then, they would surely fail.

There lay dead, the white dragon,
They took him away, in a little old wagon,
The English dragon lay dead and hurt,
The Welsh piled him down in a bed of dirt.

Everyone now, was filled with celebration,
Not just the village, but the whole of the nation,
Everybody was saved now, the whole of the town,
They knew they should reward him, with the king's crown.

The king came up, with a smile on his face,
"We shall reward you greatly, as in this case,
You have saved us all, you're not a drag,
We shall tell you now, you're on the Welsh flag!"

Holidays in term time

Holidays in term time will not be authorised in St Brides and may result in a referral to the Education Welfare Officer and a Fixed Penalty Notice. We arrange our INSET training all in one week to help St Brides families arrange cheaper holidays. Parents are legally responsible for ensuring their children receive an education. Those who intend to take their children out of school need to notify the school via the request form on the school website.

Down Syndrome Awareness Day

We are delighted to share that Gwilym has once again designed this year's PE T-shirt in celebration of Down Syndrome Awareness Day, which falls on Saturday 21st March. This has become a special annual tradition within our school community and we are so proud of the creativity and awareness it brings each year. The 2026 design is now available to purchase online via Uniform2Go. £3 from every T shirt sold will go towards fundraising this year, supporting Gwilym's therapy provision.

On Friday 20th March, pupils are invited to wear odd socks to school to celebrate difference and promote inclusion as part of Down Syndrome Awareness Day. Thank you to everyone for your continued support in celebrating true inclusion within our school community. Gwilym

World Book Day

This year we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 6th March. Children are welcome to come to school dressed as their favourite character. Let your imagination run wild.
