

The school hall is now officially open

On Wednesday Bishop Mary, the new Bishop of Llandaff, came to St Brides to officially open and bless our new school hall. The hall was full with 60 + visitors including parents, guardians, governors, communicants, politicians, former staff and clergy. Bishop Mary talked about her job, the importance of faith and special places of worship. She dressed up one of the children in her robes and explained about the patterns and what everything symbolised. After the worship all the guests stayed for tea and coffee and a tour of the school. Bishop Mary said it was a pleasure to spend time in St Brides. By Florence (Y6)
